2. A transcript of first semester grades
3. A resume & letter of recommendation
4. Submit an essay to the following question:
What Hawaiian issue influenced your decision to pursue your course of study in college/university?

Current Recipients - Renewals

If you currently receive a PKHCC scholarship, please submit:

1. This application to renew your scholarship;
2. A transcript of your spring semester grades at the end of the school year.
3. A reflection statement of your community service work.

Community Service

If awarded a PKHCC scholarship, applicants are expected to embrace the PKHCC mission of community service, leadership, participation, and perpetuation of the Hawaiian culture. Scholarship recipients are expected to commit to volunteer work in their community, whether in Hawaii or at a mainland college. Additionally, awardees are highly encouraged to participate in Prince Kuhio Hawaiian Civic Club activities including King Kamehameha Day float decorating, assisting at scholarship fundraisers, attending club meetings and activities.
