

The Prince Kūhiō Legacy Essay Contest has traditionally been an essay and creative writing contest open to students of Hawai'i. However, to honor our Prince this jubilee year, the essay contest will be open to persons of all ages. This year marks the centennial celebration year of the founding, by our Prince, of the first Hawaiian Civic Club in Honolulu, which set the foundation for today's Hawaiian civic club movement.

Prince Kūhiō Legacy Essay Contest 2019

Participants are asked to submit an essay that honors or highlights the life and legacy of Prince Jonah Kūhiō Kalaniana'ole, lovingly known as Ke Ali'i Maka'āinana or the Citizen Prince. Submission pieces may be written in either English or 'Ōlelo Hawai'i. Prizes will be awarded.
